Last updated: 27 September 2024

This Cookie Statement explains how SanDisk (“SanDisk,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) uses cookies and other technologies in our websites, applications, emails, advertisements, and online services, and the choices you have.

Definition Of "Cookies "

Cookies are small pieces of text dropped on your browser when you visit a website, email, advertisement, or other online service that store information.

Pixels (also known as web beacons), are pieces of code embedded in a website, email, application, advertisement, or other online service that sends information about your use to a server. There are various types of pixels, including image pixels (which are small graphic images) and JavaScript pixels (which contain JavaScript code). When you access a location that contains a pixel, the pixel may drop or read cookies on your browser. We also use other technologies, such as software development kits, for similar purposes.

In this Cookie Statement, we hereafter refer to all of these technologies as “cookies.”
